

Washington Driver's License (WDL) Number: this is a unique number assigned to only you. This will be the number printed on any form of identification assigned to you by the Department of Licensing (Identification cards, driving/instruction permits, and driver's license).

Acceptable Forms of ID:

- Washington State ID
- Washington State Instructional Permit
- Washington State Non-Photo Permit WITH Photo ID (School ID, Military ID, Passport, etc.)
- School ID WITH Birth Certificate & Washington State ID Number
- Out of State ID WITH Washington State ID Number
- Passport WITH Washington State ID Number
- Military ID WITH Washington ID Number

All of these Washington State ID Numbers are collectively called WDL (Washington Driver's License)

---

Don't have a Washington Driver's License (WDL) Number from the Department of Licensing?

Apply for one at DOL.WA.GOV

- Create an individual account through License Express and log in
- Pre-Apply for you Instructional Permit
- You will receive a WDL

The number will begin with WDL and end with B (for example: WDL#####B)